District court convenes Monday, December 2nd, and Judge Grimes will face the heaviest docket for several years past, the number of cases exceeding 150. More than a score of these will be tried before a jury, and if they are all ready for hearing the jurymen may figure on a two week's siege.

The county treasury will be temporarily enriched on Saturday of next week by the payment of the personal tax of the Union Pacific and the Burlington railroads. C. J. Meyer, of Wellfleet, was thrown from his carriage while returning home the first of the week and in the fall he broke the bones in his hand and was injured about the head and shoulders. In company with Robert Geisbeger he left this city and as they were crossing the suburban ditch the team became frightened at two motorcycles and overturned the buggy. Mr. Meyer was brought to town and taken to the home of his daughter, Mrs. Albert Durbin.

Complete election returns give the republican control of both houses of the Wyoming legislature, thus insuring the return of F. E. Warren to the United States senate. The result is an appreciation of Senator Warren's work for Wyoming in securing federal buildings and big appropriations for Ft. Russell. More federal appropriations per capita have gone into Wyoming than into any other state, for which Senator Warren is responsible. And you can't fault him for the desire to build up his own state.

When the North Platte high school football team secured its game with Sterling, it was then predicted that it would be a game that would test the strength of the local team and predictions of North Platte's defeat were made up until the time the game was called. The result was an overwhelming score for North Platte. Now the Cheyenne team, which plays here Thanksgiving day, is the "boogy man," and again predictions of North Platte's defeat are made. That's not the spirit to display; even if you do think the game is to be close, boost all the harder for North Platte; show the boys that you have confidence in their ability to win.

Local and Personal.

Miss Streitz Honored—Miss Ruth Streitz, who recently went to Chicago to take a course in kindergarten, has been elected president of the social settlement kindergarten organization, a position that reflects creditably upon Miss Streitz; especially when her selection came so soon after her arrival in Chicago.

Steals Sign—Some cuss, without fear of God or man, unloosed and carried away the metal sign of Dr. L. C. Drost at the entrance of the McDonald State Bank. Just how the thief expects to realize money on the sign, or to what use he will put, is difficult of solution. Dr. Drost is inclined to believe that the fellow who stole it was actuated by a spirit of unalloyed cussedness.

Elks' Memorial—The local lodge of Elks will hold annual memorial exercises on the afternoon of December 8th. It was the intention to hold this service December 1st, but on account of the Knights of Columbus class initiation occurring on the latter date, it was decided to postpone it one week. Since the last memorial service the grim reaper has made three visitations, the absent brothers being George T. Field, Carl Shaeffer and Fred Sudman, of Chappell.

Lauraine Keene and her excellent company gave a most artistic performance of "Paid in Full" at the Keith last night. One could not imagine a better production.
